When making a book, I find it's useful to walk on the book. To peek over it and look for patterns, shuffle pages, grouping and ungrouping the loose sheets. Walls work too – a book can be made on a wall. By the end of the week, the skeleton for the book was complete and we'd go on to finish it over the coming months. The book is called Koya Bound and it recently won a AIGA 50 Books | 50 Covers book design award. Koya Bound at the cover stamping factory.
