According to Bible scholar Helen Bond, when Jesus appointed 70 disciples to heal the sick and spread the word about God, they were sent in pairs. She believes these pairs were sent off in male-female teams, much like the animals loaded on to Noah's Ark. Speaking to the Times, Bond said: "That phrase 'two by two' reminds you of Noah's Ark and the idea that it is a male and a female." "She stood by Jesus, including as he was dying on the cross, when all of the male disciples were afraid. She was the first one to go to his tomb and to discover his resurrection," says Savoy.
