Second frontier.Â -Masculinity also grows from Cattleman's frontier - men were hard, no tears, etc - comes out of our image of the West. 1890!! -US no longer has frontier line to expand to, Americans hear "we have no more frontier" and panic -Manifest Destiny: God's mandate to expand Westward and carry our democracy, religion, and capitalism. Analyzing literary texts, plays, films and photographs within a transatlantic framework, this volume explores the inseparable and mutually influential relationship between different forms of national identity in Great Britain and the United States and the construction of masculinity in each country. The contributors take up issues related to how certain kinds of nationally specific masculine identifications are produced, how these change over time, and how literature and other forms of cultural representation eventually question and deconstruct their own myths of masculinity.
