Adroddiad Blynnyddol / Annual Report 1948-49

Disgrifiad / Description

A valuable group of manuscript and printed material from the donor's library (NLW MSS 14991-15065). The donation supplements the gift, made by Mr Clark some years ago, of material from the library of his grandfather, the late G T Clark, FSA, of Talygarn and Dowlais.

The manuscripts include:

I. Heraldic manuscripts. Six small quarto volumes of pedigrees and armorials of continental royal and noble families - French, 17th cent.; two folio volumes of armorials of English baronage, one ending with the year 3 and the other with 7 James I (NLW MSS 15059-60E); a folio collection of pedigrees and visitations made early in the seventeenth century, with notes by Peter Le Neve and others (NLW

MS 15061E); a nineteenth-century collection of extracts from armouries and transcripts of sepulchral inscriptions from English churches (NLW MS 15062E); an elaborately illuminated exemplification of proceedings for a grant of nobility to Don Juan de Morales Hondonero of Granada, 1734, with the leaden seal of Philip V of Spain attached, - Spanish (NLW MS 15063D); an emblazoned pedigree roll of the families of Lewis and Carne signed by Lewis Dwnn, 1601, endorsed with notes by Thomas Jones of Tregaron, 1600; and a transcript of proceedings in the Chandos Peerage case, 1799 (NLW MS 15064D).

II. Clark family manuscripts:

(a) REV SAMUEL CLARK, DD (1626-1701) - sermons on the Beatitudes taken in shorthand and afterwards written out by William Jones, 1660 (NLW MS 14991B).

(b) Volumes of Clark family correspondence, 1709-1817 (NLW MS 14992C).

(c) REV GEORGE CLARK (1777-1848) - a commonplace book with entries by his father, Joseph Clark (NLW MS 14997B); volumes of correspondence (i) 1804-28; (ii) 1833-9; (iii) from his mother-in-law, Mrs Dicey, 1795-1830 (NLW MS 14999E); a diary, 1817 (NLW MS 14998A); a volume of notes and extracts, 1835 (NLW MS 14995A); two volumes of typescript copies of his correspondence, 1804-15, 1815-28 (NLW MSS 15000-1C); and an incomplete dictionary of quotations from Milton, 1837-9 (NLW MS 14996D).

(d) CHARLES RUDSDELL CLARK (1810-36) - a diary of a tour through Wales, 1828 (NLW MS 15002A).

(e) GEORGE THOMAS CLARK of Talygarn (1809-98) - diaries, 1830-8, 1855-93, 6 vols (NLW MSS 15027D, 15003-9B); letter books, 1858-75, 1862-4, 1864-70, 1870-5, 1875-84, 5 vols (NLW MSS 15027D, 15028-31C); correspondence of the 2nd Administrative Battalion of the Glamorgan Rifle Volunteers, 1859-70 (NLW MS 15010E), and adjutant returns, 1862-9, when G T Clark was commanding officer (NLW MS 15011E); miscellaneous note books, 1832-71 (NLW MSS 15012D, 15013A, 15014-6B, 15017A, 15020A); a report on sepulchral monuments in Glamorgan and Carmarthenshire, 1869 (NLW MS 15022E), and notes on the Clark family pedigree (NLW MS 15052C).

(f) CLARK MISCELLANEA. About twenty account books, 1794-1875, including housekeeping books, garden and estate accounts, and records of financial transactions (NLW MSS 15034-8B, 15039C, 15040-1B, 15042A, 15043B, 15044C, 15045A, 15046B, 15047A, 15048-9B); recipe books (NLW MS 15021A); commonplace books by other members of the family; and a diary of a tour on the continent, 1845, by (?) Lady Anna Maria Dawson (NLW MS 15026B).

III. A book of extracts relating to Glamorgan and Welsh castles by Sir Richard Colt Hoare (NLW MSS 15050A, 15051E); and an account book of receipts at Communion at (?) Kirby Underdale, 1821-40 (NLW MS 15065C).

The printed collection contains 265 volumes, and is rich in seventeenth-century works (Dept of Printed Books). Thirty volumes contain in all upwards of 600 pamphlets tracts, reprints, and extracts from periodicals. These are concerned largely with archaeological and ecclesiastical matters, very many of Welsh interest, which seem to have been largely amassed by G T Clark and include many from his own pen. The bulk of the remaining volumes falls into three main classes, (i) heraldry, (ii) genealogy, (iii) theology.

(i) There are nearly forty volumes dealing with heraldic subjects. Many of these are general reference works which together form an exceedingly useful acquisition. The most valuable in this category is undoubtedly an exceptionally well-preserved and finely bound copy of John Bossewell's Workes of Armorie, deuyded into three bookes . . . In aed. R. Totelli, 1572. Worthy of mention, too, are The Institution, laws and ceremonies of the Most Noble Order of the Garter . . . Collected by Elias Ashmole . . . London, 1672, Nicolai Uptoni de Studio Militari Libri Quatuor, Iohan. de Bado Aureo Tractatus de Armis and Henrici Spelmanni Aspilogia . . . edited by Sir Edward Bysshe in 1654. Many of these books deal with aspects of French heraldry, including a handsome copy of D'Hozier's Les Noms surnoms, qualitez, armes, et blasons des Chevaliers et Officiers de L'Ordre du S. Esprit. . . Paris, 1634. An unusual volume is a large folio containing the names and armorials of the inspectors of dykes in the United Provinces, c. 1650, finely engraved and handcoloured, entitled Dyckgraef ende Hooge Heemrade van Rynlant.

(ii) The fifty books dealing with genealogy include a large number of heraldic visitations and family genealogies, particularly of sixteenth and seventeenth century continental ruling families. The most useful is probably Regium pariumque Magnae Britanniae Historia Genealogica . . ., by J W Imhoff. (Nuremberg, 1690).

(iii) The forty-eight theological works are interesting, apart from their intrinsic worth, in that they were nearly all written by members of the Clark family. As such they have been well cared for and richly bound. Samuel Clarke (1599-1683), the divine, curate of Bennet-Fink, is represented by practically a complete set of his many theological and biographical works in the original editions, including his Martyrology, his various Lives, and The Marrow of Ecclesiastical History . . . 1654. His eldest son and namesake (1626-1701) was also the author of many theological works, and of Annotations on the Bible, of which successive editions are found in this collection. Other members of the family whose works are represented here include Samuel Clarke, DD (1684-1750), the theological writer who became Nonconformist pastor at St Albans and is best remembered for his Collection of the Promises of Scripture, found here in three editions, and George Clark, AM (1777-1848), Chaplain to the Royal Military Asylum, Chelsea.

The historical, biographical and literary works which comprise the remainder of the collection include four which are particularly worthy of mention. There is an almost perfect first edition of Thomas North's English translation of Plutarch's Lives of the noble Grecians and Romanes compared . . . London: T. Vautroullier, 1579, and a fine example from John Baskerville's Birmingham press, Publii Virgillii Maronis Bucolica Georgica et Aeneis. . . 1757. The two remaining works are interesting mainly for their personal associations. A manuscript note in a seventeenth-century hand on the flyleaf of Digestorum seu Pandectarzhm libri quinquaginta ex Florentinis Pandectis repraesentati (Florentinae: L. Torrentini, 1553) states that this work formed part of the library of the celebrated seventeenth-century Dutch jurist, Jacques Oisel. A similar note on the fly-leaf of Discorsi letti nella grande aula del Palazzo Reale delle Scienze e delle Arti in Milano . . . 1813, states that this volume belonged to Napoleon, a claim substantiated by the appearance of the Emperor's armorial bearings on the cover.

The gift also includes seven playbills and programmes of theatrical and musical entertainments at Windsor Castle, 1852 (Dept of Pictures and Maps). Charles Kean was the director of the theatrical performances and he played the title role in King John, 6 February 1852. Der Hahnenschlag was performed [circa 1852] by members of the Royal family, including the Prince of Wales and the Princess Royal.

Four works, in five volumes, of which three contain interesting plates (Dept of Pictures and Maps), namely:

I. Le Byron des dames; or portraits of the principal female characters in Lord Byron's poems, engraved from original paintings . . . under the superintendence of W. and E. Finden, London, 1887.

2. Excursions through Ireland, by Thomas Cromwell, illustrated with 600 engravings. London, 1820 (2 volumes). Most of the illustrations were specially drawn for the work by Geo. Petrie.

3. The History and Antiquities of Windsor Castle, by Joseph Potes, and illustrated with cuts, Eton, 1749. Most of the engravings are signed " Parr. sculp". This was probably Remi (or Remigius) Parr, an architectural designer and engraver, (1723-c. 1750).

The fourth work is a copy of Memoires pour servir a l'histoire des Expeditions en Egypte et en Syrie, par J. Miot. 2e. edition, Paris, 1814.

A volume and several small rolls of Welsh pedigrees, made about 1850, at one time in the possession of Thomas Edwards of Llandaff House (NLW MS 16920F).

The volume includes pedigrees (with the coats of arms and biographical notes) of Henry VII and the kings of England, the earls of Pembroke, and numerous families having estates in Glamorgan, including the Lords of Morgannwg and Gower and their descendants, transcripts of various ' charters, grants, and other evidences referred to in the Historical account of Glamorgan ' relating to Neath Abbey (1207-1334), Ewenny (1141), Whitland (1270), Tewkesbury, Llandaff and Margam; a general treatise of the lordships marchers of Wales with particular reference to Glamorgan; and an historical account of Gower and Kilvey.

The pedigree rolls relate to the families of William Richards of Cardiff (d. 27 October 1695), Edwards of Llandaff, Priest of Cardiff, and Powell of Energlyn. There are also numerous letters and papers with biographical notes, a licence granted (1 December 1823) to Thomas William Richards, Llandaff, sometime British Consul resident in Nantes, to adopt the surname Edwards and to use the coat of arms of his maternal grandfather Thomas Edwards, and an extract from the pedigree of Lord Dynevor.

About fifteen volumes from the library of Rev John Pugh, of Motygido, a celebrated clergyman and schoolmaster and an ancestor of the donors (Dept of Printed Books). The books are interesting not only from a bibliographical point of view, many of them being printed in London before 1640, but also as examples of the text books and reference books used by a clergyman in a remote part of Wales in the late eighteenth century. Besides editions of Greek and Latin authors, there are Latin manuals on such subjects as theology, logic, history and physics. John Pugh's encyclopaedia was the Latin encyclopaedia compiled by Johann Heinrich Alsted (1630).

Notebooks, 1709-96, containing entries relating to John Pugh's school at Motygido, lists of pupils, lists of books lent, particulars of payments to John Pugh for serving curacies, genealogical memoranda of the Pugh family, farm and household accounts, lists of churchwardens of Llanarth, 1759-64, notes of sermons, and notes of a journey to Hereford by John Pugh, 1762, extracts from printed books (NLW MSS 14946-7B, 14948A, 14949D, 14950E); an assize rental of the commote of Kaerwedros, 1635, lists of the inhabitants of the parishes of Llandissiliogogo and Llanllwchaiarn, 1789-93, and presentments for the manor of Kaerwedros, 1794-5 (NLW MS 14950E).

2. Records acquired by W. R. Watkin ex officio. These include a minute book and an attendance register of the Literary Committee of the National Eisteddfod held at Llanelly, 1930 (NLW MSS 17283C, 17284A), together with a mass of autograph letters to W. R. Watkin, unsuccessful compositions submitted for competition, adjudications, etc. (NLW MS 17270D), a minute book of the Baptist Social Service League of Wales, 1911-15 (NLW MS 17252B); replies to a questionnaire, 1925, circulated by the Carmarthenshire and Cardiganshire Baptist Association, with a view to compiling evidence for the Welsh Language Commission (NLW MS 17269C); replies to a questionnaire, 1933, circulated by the Historical Committee of the Carmarthenshire and Cardiganshire Baptist Association, relating to church records, histories, and plate (NLW MS 17255D); autograph letters, 1910-45 (NLW MS 17270D); and a few contributions received for publication in Seren Gomer.

3. Manuscripts collected by W. R. Watkin. In this group are original and other records of Welsh Baptist historical interest, principally from the libraries of Rev R. E. Williams, pastor successively at Cwmavon, Castle Street (London), and Pembrey, and Rev Hugh Jones, pastor successively at Soar (Ffrwdamws, Penygraig), Blaenywaun, and Bethel (Llanelly). They consist of a group of records relating to Baptist matters in London, and particularly to Eldon Street, Moorfields (afterwards Aldgate), Welsh Baptist Church, including a collection book of 'The Baptist Missionary Society for the Scattered Welsh Population of London', 1857-71 (NLW MS 17286B), account books and vouchers of Moorfields Church, 1817-71 (NLW MSS 17242E, 17243-4C, 17245B, 17246A), a draft history of the church by R. E. Williams, autograph letters to R. E. Williams, 1901-5, and printed matter (NLW MS 17247D); autograph letters to Hugh Jones, Llanelly, 1896-1921 (NLW MS 17265B), and other records relating to some former pastors of Blaenywaun Baptist Church (NLW MS 17265B), including a preaching journal, 1816-29 (NLW MS 17257B), account and collection books, 1845-72, diaries, 1846-73 (NLW MS 17263A), sermon notes (NLW MSS 17258B, 17259A, 17261-2B), an autobiography of Rev Richard Davies ('Yr Hen Belican') (NLW MS 17260B) and a volume of statistics, 1822-34, kept by him, relating to Sunday and Singing Schools at St. Dogmaels, Soan, and Penuel (Cemais) (NLW MS 17264B), an account book of Soar, Ffrwdamws, Baptist Church, 1843-58 (NLW MS 17250B); account books of Bwlchyrhiw Baptist Church, 1867-1914 (NLW MSS 17248A, 17249B); a minute book of the Glamorgan Baptist Association and Quarterly Meeting, 1848-74 (NLW MS 17253C); a volume of membership statistics of each individual church in the Carmarthenshire and Cardiganshire Baptist Association, 1888-98 (NLW MS 17254D); an essay by William Harry, Llanmorlais, on 'The History of the Baptists at Penclawdd . . .', 1891 (NLW MS 17251D); 'Adgofion am y Llwyni a Thomas Hopkin a'r Capel' by T. C. Evans ('Cadrawd'), 1908 (NLW MS 17266C), 'Hen Atgofion Mr William Williams ('Gwilym Oswald')', Croesoswallt am Eglwys y Bedyddwyr Penycae' (NLW MS 17266C), and a typescript list of manuscripts of Rev Thomas Shankland in the library of the University College of North Wales, Bangor; 'The Trinidad MSS.', being manuscripts from the library of William Williams, Baptist missionary at San Fernando Trinidad (NLW MS 17267D); volumes and unbound papers containing sermons in Welsh and English by various Baptist ministers; manuscripts from the library of Thomas Jones, ship's captain, of Milford, afterwards harbour master and Lloyd's agent at Llanelly (NLW MSS 17287-302D); an account and minute book of the Cwmaman Auxiliary Bible Society, 1843-80 (NLW MS 17256C), a diary, 1866, of Rev Thomas E. Evans, Congregational minister at Rhosllannerchrugog and Ruabon and afterwards at Manchester (NLW MS 17272A), and an autobiography begun in 1859 (NLW MS 17271A), a notebook of Thomas Davies, Bwlchyrhiw, containing memoranda, copies of family letters, etc., 1846-93 (NLW MS 17275A); a diary of David Samuel, Neath, 1896 (NLW MS 17276A); a catalogue of Welsh books and books relating to Wales [by Rev Lodwig Lewis, Presbyterian minister, Swansea] (NLW MS 17279B); a volume of Welsh poems, 1872-9, by Owen Rees ('Bardd Degwel'), St Dogmaels, in the hand of 'Glan Dudoch' (NLW MS 17278A); a scrapbook relating to the West Glamorgan parliamentary election, 1888; a scrapbook, c. 1858-61, of Edward William Brown (afterwards Bolney), Vice-Principal of the South Wales Training College and Vicar of Sketty, a volume of English poems in the hand of, and partly by, Charles Serle Evans, Cwm Avon Office, 1841-3 (NLW MS 17277A); miscellaneous Welsh prose and poetry composed for eisteddfodau, miscellaneous addresses and articles, rentals of the executors and trustees of Thomas Williams, surgeon, deceased, in Glamorgan and elsewhere, 1813-19; etc. (NLW MS 17282E)

The printed material consists of 210 volumes, with numerous pamphlets and leaflets, principally of theological interest, in Welsh, English, Latin, German, French and Breton (Dept of Printed Books). A large proportion bears particularly on the Baptist denomination. The earliest book in the collection is Cornucopiae seu Latinae linguae commentarii, by Nicolaus Perottus, Archbishop of Siponto printed in Basle in 1526. The inside cover is inscribed 'for Sr Garth of Christs colledge', and the title-page has a note in Latin by 'S. Smythes Rectr de Reston australi ao salutis, 1678'. There are a number of interesting seventeenth-century books, including works by Christopher Love and among the eighteenth-century books is a volume of engravings by Christoph Weigel of the dress of officials and workmen engaged in mining and ore-smelting and entitled Abbildung und Beschreibung derer samtlichen Berg-Wercks [Schmeltz-Hutten] Beamten und Bedienten nach ihrem gewöhnlichen Rang und Ordnung im behorigen Berg [Hutten]-Habit. Nurnberg, 1721.

The bulk of the collection consists, however, of more recent publications.

Blwyddyn / Year

Adroddiad Blynyddol / Annual Report 1948-49

Disgrifiad / Description

A collection of approximately 2,500 books, together with a large number of pamphlets and periodicals (Dept of Printed Books). Many of the books and periodicals are of Welsh interest, and copies of most of these were already in the Library. The donor, however, gave the Librarian absolute discretion in regard to the duplicates. There are some 750 volumes, mostly unbound, as published, of French plays and novels, as well as a representative selection of books on French literature and philology and some on the history and topography of France. There are some books in other modern European languages, especially German.

A further miscellaneous collection of books, pamphlets and periodicals from the library of the late Dr G. Arbour Stephens (Dept of Printed Books). The pamphlets are of a very varied nature, including reports of, and addresses delivered at, medical conferences, local topographical guides, and publications on the political and social problems in which Dr Arbour Stephens was particularly interested. Many of the books and periodicals are of Welsh interest and copies of most of these also were already in the Library. Here, too, the donor gave the Librarian absolute discretion to dispose of such duplicates to the best possible advantage.

A large and varied collection of prints, drawings and photographs, a feature of which is the large number of oriental prints, woodcuts, and costume prints (Dept of Pictures and Maps). It includes about 200 Japanese prints and modern reproductions of the work of eighteenth and nineteenth century Japanese artists, among them being some by Hiroshige, Hokusai, Kunisada, Kuniyoshi, Toyokuni and Utamaro; several volumes illustrated with reproductions of the work of similar artists; several series of Japanese and Chinese costume prints; one eighteenth-century and seven nineteenth-century Chinese woodcuts; and two unsigned Persian prints.

The more general section of the collection includes several items of topographical interest, among them being oil-paintings, water-colour and pen-and-ink drawings, and photographs of Welsh and other scenes, an aquatint of Chepstow Castle by Paul Sandby (1775), and a line-engraving of Swansea Castle by Godfrey after Sandby (1775); miscellaneous engravings by Bartolozzi, Hullmandel and others; engraved portraits of eminent divines, and various group photographs; a selection of lantern slides, including sixteen of specimens of Swansea china; etc.

HOWELL LLOYD DAVIES

Blwyddyn / Year

Disgrifiad / Description

The collection formed by the late Howell Lloyd Davies, Ruabon, consisting of over 2,500 volumes (Dept of Printed Books). It contains dictionaries of all kinds and of many languages, of proverbs, quotations, place-names, surnames, synonyms, etc., as well as of words. English dictionaries predominate-- there is probably a copy of every English dictionary of any value or interest from the earliest times to the present day. It is doubtful whether so complete a collection exists outside the British Museum or the Bodleian Library.

The collection includes a large number of dialect glossaries, very many seventeenth and eighteenth century books on English grammar, and numerous spelling-books, most of the latter in good condition. Johnsonian books are not numerous, but among them are Johnson's copy of Walton's Life of Sanderson marked by him for dictionary purposes, The Plan of a Dictionary (1747, 4to, the non-Chesterfield variant), and a good copy of the Dictionary itself. Very few books marked by Johnson have survived.

There are also books of general interest. Particular mention may be made of Statutes from Henry III to Henry VIII (1543); Holinshed's Chronicles (1587); Hobbes's Leviathan (1651); Evelyn's Sylva and Worledge's Husbandry, and, to come down to modern times, first editions of Newman. There are, too, some collectors' books, Vale and Nonesuch Press publications, and several of C. E. Montagu's works in first or special editions.

There are complete, well-bound sets of the publications of the Philological Society, the Bibliographical Society, the SPE Tracts, and the English Dialect Society.

There is also a specimen of an eighteenth-century ivory horn-book (Dept of Pictures and Maps).

Manuscript material in the collection includes an early eighteenth-century volume of materials for a dictionary of English words (nlw ms 15194B); an early eighteenth century volume of materials for a dictionary of general information (NLW MS 15195D); thirty-five folios of materials for a dictionary of words and expressions, arranged alphabetically from A to S, compiled by Anthony Allen (d. 1754), lawyer and antiquary, Master in Chancery (DNB I, 302), with about ninety-six loose documents containing similar materials, and a description of the manuscript by Howell Davies (NLW MS 15196D); two volumes containing about 150 papers of John Hutton (? 1740-1806), author, and vicar of Burton in Kendal, Westmorland (DNB, XXVIII, 356) (NLW MSS 15197-8C); a volume of medical and culinary recipes belonging to Mary Owen, 1712 (NLW MS 15193D); autograph draft notes by George Borrow on 'Wales' and 'The Welsh Language', and on some points of comparative philology (NLW MS 15199B); a draft review by Professor H. C. Wyld of A Survey of English Dictionaries, Oxford Univ. Press, 1934, by M. M. Mathews (NLW MS 15200C), and notes on manuscript dictionaries, with extracts therefrom, compiled by Howell Davies (NLW MS 15201C).

Disgrifiad / Description

Viking antiquities in Great Britain and Ireland. Edited by Haakon Shetelig. 5 parts, Oslo, 1940 (Dept of Printed Books).

This work is the result of a thorough investigation, instituted by the Scientific Research Fund of 1919, of all Viking remains in the British Isles. Norwegian archaeologists were appointed to collect material on the spot, and these, aided by some of the leading British archaeologists, were able to compile a complete record of Viking archaeology in these islands as well as of all reminiscences of the Vikings surviving in tradition and folklore. The fifth volume deals with British antiquities of the Viking period in Norway.

ACROSS THE YEARS: THE LURE OF EARLY AUSTRALIAN BOOKS

Blwyddyn / Year

Adroddiad Blynyddol / Annual Report 1948-49

Disgrifiad / Description

Across the years: the lure of early Australian books, edited by Charles Barrett, Melbourne, N. H. Seward Pty. Ltd., 1948 (Dept of Printed Books).

A series of articles on various aspects of Australian literature and book collecting, including a history and description of some notable public and private collections, illustrated with reproductions of early watercolours and other paintings, portraits and photographs of documents and title-pages. There is a brief but interesting account of Thomas Richards, who was born at Dolgelley in 1800 and, after he had gained the Licentiate of the School of Apothecaries in 1823, went to Australia, where he followed various employments. He is reputed to have contributed over half the contents of the Hobart Town Magazine (1833-4) and has been referred to as 'the father of the Tasmanian press'. None of his work has appeared in book form. It consists chiefly of essays on medical subjects, reviews, short stories and poems. One critic of Richards states that 'he was not altogether at home in the Australian scene. He showed to better advantage in subjects placed in his home environment of Northern Wales'.

Litterature française, publiée sous la direction de Joseph Bedier, [et] Paul Hazard. Nouvelle édition refondue et augmentée sous la direction de Pierre Martino. Tome premier, 565 gravures. 6 hors-texte en couleurs (Paris, Larousse, 1948) (Dept of Printed Books).

This well-bound volume of 488 quarto pages contains a connected account of French literature from its beginnings to the end of the seventeenth century. A second volume, on the last two and half centuries, is due to appear soon. The work includes critical accounts of individual authors, together with discussions of literary movements, and also contains descriptions of the social and political background of various generations of literary figures. The hundreds of illustrations are very clearly reproduced, and the six full-page coloured reproductions show a window of Chartres Cathedral, illuminated mediaeval manuscripts, and a stage-scene of the Theatre Royal, dated 1670, in which Moliere appears among a group of actors.

JOSEPH QUINCY ADAMS

Blwyddyn / Year

Adroddiad Blynyddol / Annual Report 1948-49

Disgrifiad / Description

Joseph Quincy Adams: memorial studies, edited by J. G. McManaway, G. E. Dawson and E. E. Willoughby (Washington: The Folger Shakespeare Library, 1948) (Dept of Printed Books).

Dr Quincy Adams was the Director of the Folger Shakespeare Memorial Library, Washington, DC, USA, from 1934 until his death in 1946. He was a distinguished Shakespearian scholar, and had published two volumes of a complete edition of Shakespeare's works when he was appointed Director of the Folger Shakespeare Memorial Library. On assuming that office, he abandoned this work and devoted himself entirely to the problems of the Library - the building up of the collections, plans for cataloguing the books and manuscripts, and the publication of reprints of unique Shakespearian material.

His services to scholars all over the world were unique, and this volume of Elizabethan studies has been published in his honour by Shakespearian scholars of American and other countries, colleagues of his earlier days, former students and Folger Fellows.

Carmarthen, and in the parishes of Bettws, Llangynwyd, and St Brides Minor, co. Glamorgan, with a few deeds relating to properties in cos. Derby, Salop and Warwick. The deeds range from 1285 to the end of last century; about 120 date from Elizabethan times or earlier.

Manorial records, including surveys of the manor of Beere (Manorbier), 1601-9; court rolls of the manors of Beere, 1687-97, East and West Pembroke, 1666-98, Coedrath, 1828-51, Manorbier and Penally, 1808-43, and Maenclochog, 1813-21, all in co. Pembroke; a parliamentary survey of the manor of Oysterlowe, co. Carmarthen, 1650; and estreats from the court roll of the manor of Claverly, co. Salop, 1687-1733.

Accounts ranging from the early years of the eighteenth century to the beginning of the present century. They include household accounts, 1717-20; a number of volumes of miscellaneous accounts, 1736-1912; an account of the executors of Sir John Philipps, 1736; an account of the administration of the goods of Catherine Philipps, 1713; legal costs incurred by Lord Milford, 1782-1813; agricultural registers and accounts, 1703, 1799; an account book of Lord Milford, 1816-20; a receipt book, 1799; vouchers, 19th century; bailiffs' accounts, 19th century. These relate mainly to the Philipps family and the Picton Castle estate. A good series of rentals of the Picton Castle estate in cos. Carmarthen and Pembroke dating from 1714, the volumes for the second half of the nineteenth century being numerous and almost complete. An account of the fee-farm rents of the manors of Manorbier, Penally and St Florence, 1714; and a rental of tithe corn in the parish of St Issells, 1708.

Records of lawsuits and disputes:- interrogatories and depositions in the suit between the tenants of the lordship of Manorbier and Penally and Dame Joyce Gamadge concerning tenures, 1582; Longbourne v. Fisher, 1877-82, with an inventory produced in that suit, 1878, Philipps v. Philipps relating to the Picton Castle estate, 1877-88; Ponsonby v. Longbourne, 1879; a suit involving the Home and Colonial Company, 1898; depositions and papers in the suit between St John Philipps, bart., and Symon Harcourt, esq., 1700-1.

Records relating to coalmining in co. Pembroke:- a letter referring to coal digging, 1684, leases of coal mines in Masterland, Longlake, Williamston, Begelly, Amroth, St Issells, Jeffreston, Martletwy and Freystrop, 1791-1857; a lawsuit touching coal digging, 18th century; a journal of colliers' turns and pay in Moreton, Begelly and Ridgeway, 1776-7; coal mining in Begelly, 1632; a suit concerning coal digging on Begelly glebe, 1721; an agreement for timber for the coal works at Caremakers Pool, 1713; an account of coal shipped from Wiseman's Bridge, 1789; Begelly colliery profits, 1787; colliery accounts, 1851-7.

Correspondence:- autograph letters from Sir Erasmus Philipps, bart. (d. 1697), 1665, 1683; Elizabeth Lloyd, 1665, 1683; Richard Owen, 1684-5; John Chamberlayne, Westminster, 1699; Sir Hugh Owen, Orierton, 1697; Lady Catherine Philipps, n.d.; Col. John Phillipps, 1708; [Dean] H. Maule, Cork, 1723; John Courey, 1702; Sir John Philipps, bart. (d. 1736), 1713-19; John Philipps, his son, 1715-19; Lady Mary Philipps, 1721/2; William Yate, 1704; John Comyns, 1700; James Bevan, Laugharne, 1732; J. Campbell, 1780; Lord Cawdor, 1816; and a copy of a letter from Alexander Stanhope, 1685. There is a voluminous group of autograph letters which forms the great bulk of these muniments, addressed to Sir Charles Edward Gregg Philipps, bart. (1840-1928). Thousands of these deal with matters of public interest during the second half of the nineteenth century and reflect the interests and influence of their recipient in the life of the county and record the history of local affairs during this period. Interspersed among this mass of correspondence are numerous brochures, programmes, tickets, souvenirs, catalogues, pamphlets and other ephemeral literature, much of it of local interest.

Miscellaneous volumes- six books of memoranda and legal notes by Sir John Philipps, bart., 1700-27; correspondence from the 'serjeants of Hubberston', W. Barlow and E. Roke, to Richard Gwynne of Taliaris, with press cuttings and pedigrees of the Philipps and Gwynne families, 1727-46; four volumes

Disgrifiad / Description

An extensive group of deeds and papers relating to the Pryse estates in Wales and to the Loveden estate of Buscot Park, Berkshire. The greater part of the Welsh section concerns the Gogerddan estate in North Cardiganshire, while the remainder, brought together through family associations, consists of material relating to lands in the adjoining counties of Merioneth, Montgomery, Brecknock, Pembroke and Carmarthen.

Nearly 300 volumes including:

(i) Rentals of the Gogerddan estate (1741-1922), valuations of the Gogerddan estate (19th century), estate account books (1813-39), farm accounts (1817-22 and 1874), draft leases and agreements (late 19th century), family account books (1822-68), hunting journals (1893-1923), and transcripts of letters from Messrs. Boys and Tweedie, London, solicitors (1864).

(ii) A court leet book of the manor of Emlyn Isych, co. Pembroke (1832-61 and 1893-1918), an assessment on the inhabitants of lands within the township of Clarach, a list of estrays presented at the court leet of the hundred of Ceulan and Maesmor in the manor of Genau'r Glyn (1852-92), and a poor-rate book of the parish of Trefeurig (1909).

(iii) A Cardiganshire freeholders' book (1799), a register of Emlyn and Adpar voters (undated, ? 1820), a check book of the Cardigan Boroughs election, Aberystwyth district (1841), a register of electors for the borough of Aberystwyth (1848-9), an election account book kept by Pryse Pryse, esq., during the Cardiganshire Boroughs election of 1849, and for Pryse Loveden, esq., in 1852.

(iv) Account books relating to the Island and Esgair Hir lead mines (1761-70), a scrapbook including returns of ore shipped for Swansea from Cwmsymlog (1754-65), and from Island and Esgair Hir (1754-69), a cash book giving running expenses of lead mines in North Cardiganshire (1795-1805), and ledgers which provide details of ore sold and of royalties paid by various mining companies, including East Darren (1876-97), Cwmbwyno (1778-84), Bryn-yr-afr (1880-91 and 1898-1907), Cambrian (1880-87), Blaenceulan (1880-1900), Grogwynion (1880-9), South Darren (1880-91), Ystrad Einion (1880-9), Neuaddlwyd (1881-3), Talybont (1881-91), Bryn Dyfi (1882-1900), Cefngwirion (1882-6), Great Darren (1884-9), Elgar (1887-9 and 1896-7), Esgair Hir (1889-1907), Hafan and Henfwlch (1889-98), Penpompren-ucha (1903-7), Loveden (1901-7), Vaughan (1908-10) and Scottish Cardigan (1909-10).

(v) A volume of homilies (1675), and a journal and 'copie Booke of Letters' by Andrew King 'for my voiage into Spaine with the Lord Embasador Fanshaw in the yeare 1663'.

A group of several thousand deeds dating from the early fourteenth century. The greater number refer to property in Cardiganshire, and more particularly to the parishes of Llanbadarn fawr (including Aberystwyth) and Llanfihangel Genau'r Glyn. The remainder relate to lands in Blaenporth, Borth, Caerwedros, Cardigan, Caron, Ferwig, Llanbadarn Gelynnod, Llanbadarn Olyn, Llanddewi Brefi, Llanfihangel y Creuddyn, Llangeitho, Llangoedmor, Llangranog, Llangunllo, Llanilar, Llanychaearn, Mount, Penbryn, Ponterwyd, Tregaron and Ystrad, co. Cardigan; Brecon, Defynnock, Llandfaelog, Llandeilo'r Vayne, Llanfihangel Cwmdru, Llanfihangel Nantbran, Llanfihangel Talyllyn, Llangastey, Llangors, and Merthyr Cynog, co. Brecon; Abergwilly, Caio, Llangathan, Llanstephan, and Pencarreg, co. Carmarthen; Acton, Alington, Llanrhydd, Nerquis, Ruthin, and Wrexham, co. Denbigh; Aberdovey, Brithdir, Cathley, Corwen, Gwyddelwern, Llanaber, Llandanwg, Llandwywe, Llanenddwyn, Llanfair, Llanfawr, Llanfihangel-y-pennant, Llangar, Llangower, Llansantffraid, Llanycil, and Llanyrnwddwy, co. Merioneth; Aberhavesp, Bettws, Caereglwys, Carno, Cemaes, Darowen, Garthgelling, Llanbrynmair, Llanfyllin, Llangurig, Llanwnnog, Llanwrin, Machynlleth, Maine, Manafon, Mathafarn, Penegoes, Peniarth, Trefeglwys and Tregynan, co. Montgomery; Amroth, Bigelly, Cilgerran, Coidraff, Corston, Cronwere, Eglwysrwr, St Issells, Saundersfoot, Tenby and Troedryaur, co. Pembroke.

Apart from the volumes already mentioned, the archive contains a good deal of material relating to silver-lead mining activities in North Cardiganshire from the seventeenth century down to 1914, including tack-notes or licences granted to prospectors, leases of mines, company prospectuses, reports and royalty returns.

A few papers relating to the Moreton Colliery, co. Pembroke.

Manorial papers, consisting of court leet presentments and constables' returns for Llanfihangel Genau'r Glyn, Cardigan, and Lampeter during the seventeenth, eighteenth and nineteenth centuries.

The practical interest of the Gogerddan family in agriculture is revealed in letters and papers relating to estate farm competitions, and of particular topical interest are those which deal with the formation of the Welsh National Agricultural Society in 1903-4, of which Sir Lewes T. Loveden Pryse, bart., was the first Secretary and General Manager.

The history of the construction of the railway to Aberystwyth from the north by the brothers Thomas and John Savin and of the narrow gauge line connecting Llandre with Hafan Quarry (via Talybont) is told in a series of letters dating from 1860.

There remains a formidable group of letters and vouchers still to be sorted, a perusal of which suggests that - apart from general estate matters - they contain much valuable information concerning silver-lead mining, Parliamentary elections, and social activities in Cardiganshire during the past three hundred years.

The following pamphlets:

A Just and True Remonstrance of His Majesties Mines Royall in the Principality of Wales. Presented by Thomas Bushell, Esquire, Farmor of the said Mines Royal to his Majestie. Printed in London by E. G. 1641.

An Essay On The Value of the Mines, Late Of Sir Carberry Price. By William Waller, Gent. Steward of the said Mines. London, 1698

Rules, Orders And By-Laws For The Good Government Of The Corporation Of the Governor and Company of The Mine Adventurers Of England. London: Printed by F. Collins in the Old-Bailey, 1706.

A large group of maps and plans relating mainly to the Gogerddan estate and consisting of:

A volume containing maps, by John Withy, of properties in the counties of Brecknock and Gloucester [with a copy on a smaller scale made by L. P.]; these are dated 1737 and 1738 and include the parishes of Llangorse and Llanfihangel Nant Bran, co. Brecknock, and Painswick and Pitchcomb, co. Gloucester (Dept of Pictures and Maps).

Several volumes of farm plans, made by Thomas Lewis between 1778 and 1790, of lands in the parishes of Llanfihangel-genu'r-glyn, Llancynfelin, Ysgubor-y-Coed, Llanbadarn fawr, Penbryn, Troedyraur, Llangunllo, Pant-y-Bettws, Cardigan and Mount, co. Cardigan; Machynlleth, co. Montgomery; and St Issels and Begelly, co. Pembroke (Dept of Pictures and Maps).

Further examples of Thomas Lewis's work are contained in a group of large-scale plans of the Gogerddan estates, Lodge Park, Forest, Rhoscellan, and other farms in North Cardiganshire, 1764-90, a feature of these being the artistic cartouches and ornaments with which they are decorated (Dept of Pictures and Maps).

Another land-surveyor, Richard Davis, of Lewknor, Oxfordshire, is represented by four large-scale plans numbered 1, 3, 4, & 5, from a set of six; the farms mapped are in the parishes of Llanbadarnfawr and Llanfihangel-genu'r-glyn, co. Cardigan, and the plans are dated 1787 and 1788. In the accompanying book of reference particulars of acreages, utilization, etc., are given for eighty-six farms on the six plans (Dept of Pictures and Maps).

About eighty further items are plans of farms and other properties in North Cardiganshire; they are mainly of nineteenth century date, but include some of lands in the parish of Machynlleth in the county of Montgomery dated 1723, the work of John Pratchett, lands in the parishes of Llanbadarnfawr and Llanfihangel-genu'r-glyn, in the county of Cardigan, 1780, lands in the parish of Llanfihangel Nant Bran in the county of Brecknock, by J. Williams, 1780, and lands in the county of Gloucester, c. 1800, and in the county of Leicester, 1740 (Dept of Pictures and Maps).

A number of plans and tracings of the townships of Ceulan-y-Maesmawr and Elerch and the manors of Genu'r-glyn and Nantyrarian, and one of Perfedd by Lewis Morris (Dept of Pictures and Maps).

Inclosure maps of Ysgubor-y-Coed, and Ceulan-y-Maesmawr and maps and copies of a large area including the liberties of Bwlch-y-Garreg, Dolrhyddlan, Nantynod and Ffosfudr showing the freehold lands, the lord's waste, roads, mines, quarries, etc. (Dept of Pictures and Maps)

Material relating to Aberystwyth includes a map of the borough with farms and lands in the parish of Llanbadarnfawr, c. 1800; plans of the mill leet; and plans of building sites in North Road, Queen's Road, Caradog Road, and Penglais, c. 1880 (Dept of Pictures and Maps).

Over fifty plans and drawings of the following mines in North Cardiganshire (Dept of Pictures and Maps):-

Allt y Crib, Bryndyfi, Bryn yr Afr, Cefn Erglodd, Cefn gwinion, Cwmbrwyno, Cwmsebon, Cwmsymlog, Darren (East and South mines), Esgair Hir, Grogwinion, Llywernog, Loveden Mynydd Gorddu, South Cambrian Vaughan and Ystrad Einion. The plans are of late nineteenth century date with the exception of two of the Grogwinion mine dated 1741.

A collection of nearly 100 sheets of the Ordnance Survey maps for North Cardiganshire on the twenty-five inch, six inch, and one inch scales, some of which supplement the set in the Library.

Some plans and sections of the Cambrian Railway and of the railway of the Hafan Mining Company (Dept of Pictures and Maps).

Amongst a small group of miscellaneous prints are copies of the Oxford Almanack for 1790 and 1797.

The Buscot Park section includes upwards of eighty volumes consisting of cash account books, inventories of plate, housekeeping books, farm account books, a catalogue of books and over 1,000 deeds relating to lands in Berkshire.

Disgrifiad / Description

Deeds and legal papers (1541-1787) relating chiefly to properties in the parishes of Llanelly, Pembrey, Llanedy, Llangennech, Kidwelly, Llandefeilog, Llangendeirne, Llangunnor, Carmarthen, Talley, Llandebie, Llandilo Fawr, Bettws, Llanfihangel Aberbythick, and Llanfihangel Cilfargen, co. Carmarthen, and Haverfordwest, Prendergast, Brawdy, Llanddewi, Roch, Rosemarket, Clarboston, Llanycefn, Newcastle, Nolton and Narberth, co. Pembroke. One document deals with certain manor-farms in co. Cardigan and with lands in the parishes of Kerry and Llandinam, co. Montgomery. Some of the documents illustrate development, e.g., documents relating to the operation of a lime-kiln in the parish of Prendergast in 1699, to an iron-furnace in the parish of Llangendeirne in 1708, and to early working of coal in the Llanelly area in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries.

Miscellaneous manuscripts and papers, including account-books, diaries, note-books, and other papers chiefly of a personal nature.

Autograph letters covering the greater part of the eighteenth century. They deal in general with personal matters, domestic accounts, financial affairs, etc., but one group, covering the middle decades of the century, casts light on the trading enterprises of Sir Thomas Stepney, the seventh holder of the baronetcy. There are letters from the masters of the ships owned by Sir Thomas, from other business firms, and from his agents in the main seaports of Wales and England as well as at continental centres of trade, such as Brest and Lisbon.
