• When referring to any work that is NOT a journal, such as a book, article, or Web page, capitalise only the first letter of the first word of a title and subtitle, the first word after a colon or a dash in the title, and proper nouns. Do not capitalise the first letter of the second word in a hyphenated compound word. • The same suffix is used to distinguish that reference for the in-text citations. Order of Listing The List of References is ordered alphabetically by primary authors' surnames. • Multiple authors. o. Use the sequence of authors' surnames exactly as given in the publication. The primary author, ie, major contributor, is listed first by the publisher. • Same author: o. different years: list the author's references chronologically, starting with the earliest date. o. How to Cite a Book in Print in APA. Structure: Last, F. M. (Year Published) Book. City, State: Publisher. Examples • How to Cite a Book Online in APA. Format: Last, F. M. (Year Published) Book. Retrieved from URL. Examples An edited book is treated just like a regular book for the purposes of referencing, except that (ed.) or (eds) is placed after the editor's name(s) in the reference list. Textbooks are often edited books. If you are referring to a specific chapter within an edited book, rather than to the entire book, see chapter in an edited book. Editor Year, Title, Edition, Publisher, Place of Publication. Use (ed.) if there is only one editor. In-text. Hamilton (2005, p. 23) notes that conventional critiques of documentary portray reality as a "rehearsed construction".
