Fiction Short Story "Out Of This World: AN ENCOUNTER WITH ALIENS" Photo credit: Piresco from morguefile.com. Late at night I woke up by a sudden sound. I felt very drowsy and tried to sleep, but the sound didn't let me sleep. Then finally I got up to see what was that sound and where did it come from. I went to the backyard of my house. I took my cycle and started following the light and minutes later I was in front of a huge spaceship. I was amazed. When I touched it, a wave pushed me aside. It said "Hello new human. We are the Grays." This was surely the translation of the words which the creature said. The creature was surely not an earthling. He was probably an alien!!! I was terrified of what the alien might do to me. The film depicts a terrifying abduction scene filled with horrific-looking aliens, and a medical procedure which left many theatregoers with bone-chilling nightmares. Unfortunately, Hollywood took its own artistic license and [!]
On the ride back, a bright light caught Travis's eye. Shining with a yellow brilliance, the men couldn't make out what it could be, whether a fire, or perhaps a crashed plane. They decided to drive towards the light, only to discover what Travis explained as "the most awesome, incredible sight we had seen in our entire lives." It was a flying saucer. After shutting off the engine to their truck, the group took an even closer look at this unbelievable sight. I have a story to tell, and this is how it goes
Chapter One: Encounter
I EAGERLY LEFT THE restaurant, finally getting off my shift. I hate working as a waitress, I really do. My feet ached and I got crappy tips because I don't look like a Barbie like Janice, my co-worker. There was no moon tonight; nope, just street lights and a few occasional lights from passing cars. I felt the cold whistle I had around my neck in case someone dared to attack me. The air smelled fresher than normal, instead of the normal smokiness of an old car, or cigarettes blowing in my face. I pulled my bike up to the building and opened the old rickety wooden door to the apartment building. As I carried my bike up the stairs, because there is no elevator, I was huffing and puffing before reaching my floor.
