Native title corporations across Australia will now be able to receive additional funding and training support to increase their opportunities for economic independence. This will allow more corporations to become self-sufficient and sustainable. The Minister for Indigenous Affairs, Nigel Scullion, announced the investment of $20 million over four years at the National Native Title Conference in Port Douglas on 17 June. The announcement has been welcomed by stakeholders. The Native Title Act and PBC regulations. Traditional Owner Corporations. The interaction of cultural heritage and native title. Role and function of a PBC. The National Native Title Conference 2018 was convened by the Australian Institute of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Studies (AIATSIS), the Kimberley Land Council (KLC) and hosted by the Yawuru people on their traditional lands in Broome, Western Australia. The conference was held at Cable Beach Resort from Tuesday 5th to Thursday 7th June 2018.
