The Bible is a story book...not Hlstory book. A comparable book would be the Master & Commander series by Patrick O'brien. the book is fiction, the people are fictional, yet some of the events are historical. The historical events are not chronological and span over a wider range of time than the possible lifespan of the fictional people in the book. The bible has a very low value as a book of history. They (bible, quran, torah) are mainly books of religion but with advices on how to live a life without stepping on the toes of other people. Some advices are about hygiene too...but tho
