"Collected here for the first time are the complete lyrics to Patti Smith's catalog. From her legendary album Horses to her most recent work, Peace and Noise, this book charts the lyrical journey of a poet and musician whose words have influenced a generation. Illustrated with nearly 150 photographs as well as original artwork, Patti Smith Complete includes previously unpublished work by renowned photographers documenting nearly three decades of creative development. And there were future reflections On the face and the hands On a green colored island On a primitive man It was the future reflecting It felt familiar but new A street was missing a building The kids had something to do. There was a feeling the spirit was leaving Red like a marker So my tribe, with my knife Cut the heart from a lonely life. I saw patterns on floorboards Deep in the dust was a leader Someone was walking on floorboards Turning from oak into cedar He can assess the situation I wrapped a string around my finger Into the forest with the young ones I don't expect to be a winner
