Atheist critique: God is incredibly anthropomorphic, portrayed as a large male humanoid with a particular skin color and eye shape and amplifications of human abilities and human traits, even our bad traits. Theistic admission: True. Thank you for helping better the idea of God. The anthropomorphic God IS incredible. But that’s just an image of God. God is not a humanoid or any kind of material being, male or female. God is a genderless spirit. Who I am My name is Tom and I started my RO-tv channel, TJump, in order to demonstrate how effective my approach is at debunking arguments for the existence of a God at all levels from casual apologetics to professional philosophers and cosmologists. The primary motivation to start this channel had to do with the fact I wrote an epistemology (theory of knowledge) and model of objective morality, which I’ve been cultivating throughout the years.
