Covers Vernard Eller - Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia To call the ziggurat a tower is not inaccurate, and as a matter of fact, the term they. god or goddess, but cities were not limited to one ziggurat Kish had three Thus, when the people in Genesis 11 speak of building a city, they are most

Although God had made it very clear that He wanted mankind to fill the earth, the people at Babel decided to make their own plan, disregarding the Lord's instructions. In response to their rebellion, God confused their language so they could no longer communicate with each other and build the tower. As a result, His will was accomplished, and they were scattered abroad over the face of the earth. We need God's guidance for every area of our lives—financial decisions, marriage, business, education, or anything that concerns us. Sometimes we're going in the right direction, but the timing isn't right. God not only knows what we should do, but how and when as well. Living courageously starts with meditating on God's Word.
