This colonial politics of (mis)recognition are not lost on Chief Lance Haymond of the Kebaowek First Nation, an Algonquin community in Quebec. Haymond, with the support of Chiefs from other Algonquin communities and the Mohawks of Kahnawake, has noted the Crown's failure to properly recognize both the population and territory comprising the Algonquin nation. It continues in a tradition that elides a transformative politics that would mark a true "nation-to-nation relationship" and a decolonized relationship that will bring about a vibrant, flourishing Indigenous resurgence. Decolonization is Not a Metaphor. Decolonization: Indigeneity, Education and Society 1(1): 1-40. About The Author (Devin Zane Shaw and Veldon Coburn)
