Fascism is commonly misunderstood by those not versed on its history. While most do understand that fascism is a form of totalitarian government, there is a common misconception that all forms of totalitarian governments are fascist. This is an incorrect assumption because there are many other components that must be in place in order for a system to be truly fascist. A thorough examination of the history of fascist regimes and the birth of this neosocialist ideology can dispel many misconceptions while also clearly defining what it truly is. What Is Fascism? Probably the most impacting event of the World War I era was the birth of National Syndicalism which was a nationalist socialist movement. It originated in France and would find its way to Italy. Being a teenager is graphic by Nika (R). Uncomfortable (many things are banned) Very exiting, you learn many things about yourself and others. Amazing (it lasts only few years and we will miss these years in future) Great, because young years are given only once Interesting, because you understand who you are Being a teenager is fun because you can get certain freedoms like going home later, hanging out more with my friends, be allowed to watch more mature movies, etc. Being a teenager is exciting because there are so many opportunities. There are so many things that you can do and then th
