Aid for trade as a public good
Chun-Chieh Wang 711

Network externalities, transport costs, and tariffs
Kenji Fujiwara 729

Does foreign direct investment really enhance China's regional productivity?
Chun-Hung Lin, Chia-Ming Lee and Chih-Hsiang Yang 741

The factor content of Chinese trade
Kathryn G. Marshall 769

International financial integration and real exchange rate long-run dynamics in emerging countries: Some panel evidence
Guglielmo Maria Caporale, Thouraya Hadj Amor and Christophe Rault 789

The effects of exchange rate fluctuations on exports: A sectoral analysis for Turkey
Nergiz Dincer and Magda Kandil 809

Book review 839
Anne & Scott

JITED is a peer-reviewed journal, focuses on international economics, economic development, and more importantly, the interface between trade and development. The links between trade and development economics are critical at a time when both fluctuating commodity prices and trade liberalisation and agreements can radically affect the economies of developing countries.

Jитет is designed to meet the needs of international and development economists, economic historians, applied economists and policy makers. The international experts who make up the journal’s Editorial Board encourage contributions from economists worldwide.

JITT citations:
- bibliographical and applied issues in international and development economics
- economic applications of trade and development issues based on sound theoretical economic models or testing fundamental economic hypotheses
- models of structural change
- trade and development issues of economies in Eastern Europe, Asia and the Pacific area
- papers on specific topics
- review articles on important branches of the literature

Notes for Contributors

1. All authors should be made online at the journal of International Trade & Economic Development Manuscript Central site (link to http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/). New users must first create an account. Once a user is logged onto the site, submissions should be made via the Author Centre.

2. Authors should prepare and upload two versions of their manuscript:
   - One should be complete in content, while in the second all document information identifying the author should be removed from files to allow them to be sent anonymously to referees. When uploading files, authors will have the ability to define the non-authoritative version as ‘File not for review’ when submitting your manuscript, please upload all of your original source files.

3. Tables and figures should not be inserted in the pages of the manuscript but should be sent on separate sheets. They should be numbered consecutively in Arabic numerals with a descriptive caption. The desired position in the text for each table and figure should be indicated in the margin of the manuscript.

4. Use The Chicago Manual of Style system of referencing:
   - author’s name, the department where the work was done, an address for correspondence, and if different, telephone numbers, email address and any acknowledgements.

5. Submissions should be made in English, typed in double spacing with wide margins, one side only of the paper, preferably of A4 size. The title, but not the author’s name, should appear on the first page of the manuscript. Furthermore, to assist objective, the author should avoid any reference to him or herself which would enable identification by referees.

6. Authors should normally be as concise as possible. The difficulty and expense involved in making amendments at the page proof stage is appreciably greater if the text is already lengthy.

7. Pages proofs will be sent for correction to a first-named author unless otherwise requested. Authors should return page proofs to the Editor on the date requested.

8. In a condition of publication that author assigns copyright and license the publication rights in their articles, including abstracts, to Taylor & Francis. This enables us to ensure full copyright protection and to disseminate the article, and of course the Journal, to the widest possible readership in print and electronic formats as appropriate. Authors retain many rights under the author’s rights policies, which can be found at www.informaworld.com/authors/journals/copyright.

9. Corresponding authors will receive free online access to their article through our website (www.informaworld.com) and a complimentary copy of the issue containing their article.

10. Enquiries concerning the submission of articles, correspondence and other material dealing with editorial matters should be addressed to the following Editor: Professor Pasquale M. Sgro, at the Editorial Office address which follows.
The International trade and economics is also called International business and trade or International economy and trade. Program seeks to develop capabilities for sustainable and competitive managerial decision making. Continuous globalization processes of domestic economies have led to a situation where firms must face and comprehend the impact from global production and trade networks. International markets are in constant flux as the global business environment changes with political and economic developments. Companies need to stay on top of who their competition is, who is purchasing their products, and where the opportunities for growth are. Autonomous noncommercial organization “Trade and economic development council”. Reg. № 1157700002569 VAT 7703071230. Start your trade within. In Russia RTEDC encourages foreign partners in regional manufacture location through investment in special economic zones. RTEDC is going to become a center for concentration of international cooperation competencies for Russian business in compliance with Russian business associations, with support of the Russian Government.