

HENRY WOON PHOTOGRAPHS AND SCRAPBOOKS (AAS ARC 2004/1)

The Henry Woon collection contains photographs and scrapbooks documenting Asian Americans and other people of color in the San Francisco Bay Area (majority in Oakland and San Francisco) from the 1950s to the early 2000s. Woon was an avid freelance photographer and photojournalist for East West and AsianWeek newspapers. The color photographs primarily include identified organizations and their events, conferences, workshops, banquets, and general activities. They also contain politicians and political campaigns, Chinese New Year, the Moon festival, beauty contests, art and exhibitions, weddings, Chinese Opera, Chinatowns, and numerous community events. There are also some general photographs of individuals, landscapes, landmarks, and Woon's family.
