Lady Chablis Club One Savannah, GA Dance Club Author Name The Lady Chablis. Title Hiding My Candy: The Autobiography of the Grand Empress of Savannah. Binding Soft cover. Book Condition Near Fine.

A brassy, forthright autobiography from the flamboyant, cross-dressing black diva made famous by John Berendt's bestselling Midnight in the Garden of Good and Evil. As Berendt's admiring introduction notes, The Lady Chablis is a legal name, adopted as much for copyright protection as to define her identity. That's typical of the savvy, self-promoting Grand Empress of Savannah: She bills herself as a performance artist rather than as a drag queen. Controlling perceptions of herself (and generally getting her way) is a top priority for the willful Chablis.
