UAMS Library Hosts Annual SCC/MLA Meeting

The UAMS Library and health sciences librarians in Arkansas recently hosted the annual meeting of the South Central Chapter of the Medical Library Association (www.library.uams.edu/SCC2005/). SCC/MLA has approximately 500 members who work in health sciences libraries in Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Texas. Approximately 200 people attended this year's conference, which was held at the Peabody Hotel on October 22-26.

The theme of the meeting was Public Health Challenges: The Librarian's Role, and plenary speakers included Dr. Joe Thompson and Dr. Joycelyn Elders. The program included 20 paper presentations, 26 posters, six sharing sessions, and a technology expo. Numerous committee meetings were also held during the conference.

UAMS librarians took active roles in the program. Jan Hart made a presentation on MedEd Portal, and Rena Sheffer discussed linking software during the Technology Expo. Susan Steelman presented a paper on public health professionals' information needs. Mary Ryan facilitated a sharing session on scholarly communication issues, and Dena Plaisted facilitated a session on Interlibrary Loan. Several members of the staff participated in at least one of the six continuing education courses taught during the meeting. Abby Holt served as SCC/MLA Secretary this year and took minutes during the business meetings.

Many members of the UAMS Library staff worked at the meeting, including staffing the registration and hospitality tables, providing technical support for several events, etc. Dena Plaisted was in charge of local arrangements, Mary Ryan chaired the Program Committee, Susan Steelman coordinated exhibits and sponsorships, Abby Holt was responsible for printing of programs and other materials, Heather Smith, Mike Crume and others provided technology support, Libby Ingram was in charge of registration, and Nancy Sessoms was responsible for decorations.

Social events included "A Night at the Movies" at the downtown public library, which was sponsored by the Regional Programs/AHEC Office and coordinated by the AHEC librarians. Conference goers said farewell at a formal banquet at the Clinton Presidential Center. Next year's conference will be held in College Station, Texas on October 20-25.

For further information, contact Dena Plaisted, Head of Document Access Services, PlaistedDenaK@uams.edu.

Dr. Joycelyn Elders, Keynote Speaker for HLIS Luncheon, and Mary Ryan, UAMS Library Director.

Laptops Now Available for Checkout

The UAMS Library is pleased to announce that Dr. Robert E. McGehee, Jr., Dean of the Graduate School, has graciously provided funding for the purchase of two Dell laptops for the use of students and faculty within the library. These will be available for checkout at the Circulation Desk for a two hour period and will have wireless access to the Internet. At checkout, the borrower will be required to leave an ID badge which will be returned upon check-in.

Users cannot save files to the hard drive, as everything will be lost when the laptop is turned off. A CD or a thumb drive can be used to save personal files.

Eight additional laptops for checkout will be purchased when funds become available.

UAMS Library Used Book Sale

March 9

The UAMS Library will hold its annual book sale on Thursday, March 9, 8:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m. Tables will be set up in the lobby of the ED II building. Most books will be sold for $1 each. The proceeds will be used to support Library services.

Come early for the best bargains!

Please contact Mary Hawks if you have questions, 686-6749.

Use PubMed to find biomedical literature about specific alternative treatments. You can search PubMed by topic and/or “Limit” to a subject subset of Complementary Medicine. The results may include CAM MeSH headings and headings as well as selected CAM journals.

<http://www.library.uams.edu> – Select Databases *

The screenshot shows the PubMed search interface. At the top, there are tabs for 'Limits', 'Preview/Index', 'History', 'Clipboard', and 'Details'. Below the tabs, there are several bullet points providing search tips:

- Use All Fields pull-down menu to specify a field.
- Boolean operators AND, OR, NOT must be in upper case.
- If search fields tags are used enclose in square brackets, e.g., rubella [ti].
- Search limits may exclude in process and publisher supplied citations.

 Below these tips is the 'Limited to:' section. It includes:

- 'All Fields' dropdown menu.
- 'Publication Types' dropdown menu.
- 'Ages' dropdown menu.
- 'Entrez Date' dropdown menu.
- 'Publication Date' dropdown menu with 'From' and 'To' date input fields.
- 'Languages' dropdown menu.
- 'Humans or Animals' dropdown menu.
- 'only items with abstracts' checkbox.
- 'Subsets' dropdown menu with a list of options including 'Complementary Medicine', 'Core clinical journals', 'Dental journals', 'History of Medicine', 'MEDLINE', 'Nursing journals', 'OLDMEDLINE for Pre1965', 'PubMed Central', 'Space Life Sciences', and 'Toxicology'.

 At the bottom of the 'Limited to:' section, it says 'Use the format YYYY/MM/DD, month and day are optional.'

Outreach News :

Spotlight: AHEC Library - Fayetteville

This column concludes the spotlight on Arkansas' Area Health Education Center (AHEC) libraries. In addition to supporting AHEC faculty, staff and students, these libraries also provide tremendous support to the surrounding medical community by providing library services to health professionals in their regions.

In the seventh and final part of this series, we place the spotlight on the AHEC Library in Fayetteville directed by Elva Conditt.

History:

The AHEC Library opened in 1977 following the establishment of the AHEC in Fayetteville three years earlier. Connie Wilson was the original Librarian. At that time the library was located at 1125 N. College in the Washington Regional Medical Center (WRMC). The library remained at that location until June 2003 at which time they moved to two new locations.

The main medical library now resides on the AHEC NW campus at 2855 E. Joyce Blvd. where the majority of the book and journal collection is housed. To keep a presence at the new Washington Regional Medical Center (3215 N. North Hills Blvd.), they maintain a point-of-contact library with a small core collection and selected medical and nursing journals. This staffing of two locations makes the AHEC Fayetteville library unique among the seven. The current library staff includes Elva Conditt, Connie Wilson and Laura Williams.

Library Director:

Elva Conditt, the current Library Director, provided the following tidbits about herself:

Hobbies: "Puttering in the garden - to say gardening might be an overstatement of my exertions." She also enjoys reading, football season tailgates, and antiqueing.

Favorite part of the job: "Of course, it is the interaction with the patron, either medical or public, and feeling that I have found the information that is going to fill their particular need for knowledge. Ultimately, that knowledge is used to help heal-through the physician or by setting the patient's mind at ease."

What has been your strangest request? "It's hard to say - usually I just laugh and keep going."

Professional Memberships:

- Medical Library Association

- South Central Chapter/Medical Library Association

Patron Quotes:

"The librarians at the AHEC-NW Library have provided excellent services for our research and grant projects over the past 7 years. The librarians have performed multiple literature searches each year for our research projects regarding health promotion, telemedicine, and health workforce research. This review of literature has been essential for the background, research design and methods, and implications for our research studies and grants. The information from this review of literature has been incorporated into multiple publications and national/international/statewide presentations for these projects each year. We very much appreciate the librarians' expertise, helpfulness, and efficiency in performing these literature searches for our research and grant projects."--Cathy Irwin, Ph.D., RN

Groups Served:

- AHEC Residents
- Physicians & health professionals at Washington Regional Medical Center, and Northwest Medical Center in Springdale, AR.
- AHEC NW Rad Tech students, Diagnostic Medical Sonography students, English/Spanish Medical Interpretation students.
- Because we have the only available computer lab at the AHEC campus, the library also serves as a testing site for some advanced degree nursing students, as well as, nuclear medicine and med tech students.

Medical Collection:

- This AHEC Library has just over 1500 books and 140 journal titles.
- The AHEC NW Library has five computers at the main location and three computers at the new WRMC location.
- The library provides UpToDate via CD at the WRMC location.

Special Collections:

- The Library has consumer health books and access to The National Library of Medicine's MedlinePlus via the web available for the general public.

Services Provided:

- Mediated searches for health professionals and others
- Interlibrary Loans
- Document Delivery
- Circulation
- Consumer Health Information
- Current Reading List
- Database Training for searching medical literature and consumer health sites
- Loansome Doc for health professionals
- Reference Services available to all

Technology:

- UAMS Library Staff provide training and support for changing technologies.
- AHEC Libraries are included in numerous UAMS Licensing agreements for databases and other electronic resources which add value to services in AHEC Libraries.
- The Innovative Innopac Online Catalog System including the Millennium Circulation Module is used by all the AHEC libraries.

Hours:

AHEC NW	Monday – Friday	8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.
WRMC	Monday – Friday	8:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

New Online Resources

Liebert e-Journals

Thanks to a consortial purchase through SCAMeL (South Central Academic Medical Libraries), the UAMS Library now has access to 40 additional e-journals published by the Mary Ann Liebert Company. Some of the recently acquired e-journals from this collection are listed below:

AIDS Research and Human Retroviruses
Alternative & Complementary Therapies
Cell Preservation Technology
Cloning and Stem Cells
Diabetes Technology & Therapeutics
Genetic Testing
Journal of Child and Adolescent Psychopharmacology
Journal of Gynecologic Surgery
Journal of Palliative Medicine
Pediatric Asthma, Allergy & Immunology
Stem Cells and Development
Telemedicine Journal and e-Health
Viral Immunology

Our online access to these journals typically covers 2000 to present. Links to the full text articles are provided through the Library's e-Journals page,

<http://www.library.uams.edu/resources/journals.aspx>

or from databases such as PubMed

<http://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/entrez/query.fcgi?otool=uamslib>

and CINAHL <http://libproxy.uams.edu/login?url=http://search.epnet.com/login.aspx?authtype=ip,uid&profile=ehost&defaultdb=cin20>.

If you have questions about this collection, please contact Mary Hawks, Collection Management Librarian, at hawksmarys@uams.edu.

SocINDEX with Full Text: New Database Available Now

SocINDEX with Full Text provides access to sociological literature dating back to 1895. The database is available on the Library web site through the EBSCOHost Research Databases. UAMS Library now offers twenty-two of the EBSCOHost databases which cover a wide variety of subject areas.

SocINDEX with Full Text offers coverage from all sub-disciplines of sociology including anthropology, criminal justice, demography, economic development, ethnic and racial studies, gender studies, politics, religion, rural sociology, social psychology, urban studies, violence, welfare, and many others. This database contains full text for 242 "core" coverage journals and 72 "priority" coverage journals. It also includes full text for 547 books and 6,711 conference papers. Searchable cited references are also included.

If you need assistance with this or any of the online databases included in the EBSCOHost family, please contact the Reference Department at 686-6734 or LibraryReferenceDesk@uams.edu. Informal instruction is provided at the Reference Desk or a Reference Librarian will schedule an appointment for a one-on-one consultation.

Psychiatry Online Update!

Pop-up Blocker Tip

Ever try to register for a conference and can't access the form? Site links for items like registration forms may try to open a new window. Your pop-up blocker will probably consider this a pop-up. To override this without having to change your blocker setting-

- hold down the ctrl key
- re-click the link to the form
- holding down the ctrl key until the form opens
- release the ctrl key and continue your original work.

If this option does not work, you will need to go to your pop-up blocker setting and change it.

<http://www.library.uams.edu/resources/databases.aspx> (scroll down the alphabetical list to Psychiatry)

A new revised version of the DSM-IV-TR Classification PDA download is available.

To update the version on your PDA, please follow the steps below:

1. First, it's best to delete the DSM-IV-TR Classification from your PDA to make sure that the updated version downloads correctly. [On your PDA, open the Mobipocket Reader. Go to the Library page (books icon). To the left of the book title, tap the book icon and then select "Delete."]
2. Go to www.psychiatryonline.com and log in as needed.
3. Click on "DSM-IV-TR" to go to the DSM-IV-TR Contents page.
4. Click the "Download the DSM-IV-TR Classification to your PDA" link in the gray box.
5. Follow the on-screen directions.
6. After successful synchronization, you can view the replacement Classification on your PDA by opening the Mobipocket Reader application, opening the Library, and then clicking on eBooks.

For further assistance, e-mail Abby Holt at holtabby@uams.edu.

New Online Resources

Liebert e-Journals

Thanks to a consortial purchase through SCAMeL (South Central Academic Medical Libraries), the UAMS Library now has access to 40 additional e-journals published by the Mary Ann Liebert Company. Some of the recently acquired e-journals from this collection are listed below:

AIDS Research and Human Retroviruses
Alternative & Complementary Therapies
Cell Preservation Technology
Cloning and Stem Cells
Diabetes Technology & Therapeutics
Genetic Testing
Journal of Child and Adolescent Psychopharmacology
Journal of Gynecologic Surgery
Journal of Palliative Medicine
Pediatric Asthma, Allergy & Immunology
Stem Cells and Development
Telemedicine Journal and e-Health
Viral Immunology

Our online access to these journals typically covers 2000 to present. Links to the full text articles are provided through the Library's e-Journals page,

<http://www.library.uams.edu/resources/journals.aspx>

or from databases such as PubMed

<http://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/entrez/query.fcgi?otool=uamslib>

and CINAHL <http://libproxy.uams.edu/login?url=http://search.epnet.com/login.aspx?authtype=ip,uid&profile=ehost&defaultdb=cin20>.

If you have questions about this collection, please contact Mary Hawks, Collection Management Librarian, at hawksmarys@uams.edu.

SocINDEX with Full Text: New Database Available Now

SocINDEX with Full Text provides access to sociological literature dating back to 1895. The database is available on the Library web site through the EBSCOHost Research Databases. UAMS Library now offers twenty-two of the EBSCOHost databases which cover a wide variety of subject areas.

SocINDEX with Full Text offers coverage from all sub-disciplines of sociology including anthropology, criminal justice, demography, economic development, ethnic and racial studies, gender studies, politics, religion, rural sociology, social psychology, urban studies, violence, welfare, and many others. This database contains full text for 242 "core" coverage journals and 72 "priority" coverage journals. It also includes full text for 547 books and 6,711 conference papers. Searchable cited references are also included.

If you need assistance with this or any of the online databases included in the EBSCOHost family, please contact the Reference Department at 686-6734 or LibraryReferenceDesk@uams.edu. Informal instruction is provided at the Reference Desk or a Reference Librarian will schedule an appointment for a one-on-one consultation.

Psychiatry Online Update!

Pop-up Blocker Tip

Ever try to register for a conference and can't access the form? Site links for items like registration forms may try to open a new window. Your pop-up blocker will probably consider this a pop-up. To override this without having to change your blocker setting-

- hold down the ctrl key
- re-click the link to the form
- holding down the ctrl key until the form opens
- release the ctrl key and continue your original work.

If this option does not work, you will need to go to your pop-up blocker setting and change it.

A new revised version of the DSM-IV-TR Classification PDA download is available.

To update the version on your PDA, please follow the steps below:

1. First, it's best to delete the DSM-IV-TR Classification from your PDA to make sure that the updated version downloads correctly. [On your PDA, open the Mobipocket Reader. Go to the Library page (books icon). To the left of the book title, tap the book icon and then select "Delete."]
2. Go to www.psychiatryonline.com and log in as needed.
3. Click on "DSM-IV-TR" to go to the DSM-IV-TR Contents page.
4. Click the "Download the DSM-IV-TR Classification to your PDA" link in the gray box.
5. Follow the on-screen directions.
6. After successful synchronization, you can view the replacement Classification on your PDA by opening the Mobipocket Reader application, opening the Library, and then clicking on eBooks.

For further assistance, e-mail Abby Holt at holtabby@uams.edu.
