Have you caught the entrepreneur bug and are wanting to start your own small business? Fast forward to present day, I currently have a virtual assistant that helps out with some of the behind-the-scenes work on my blog. It's all the administrative stuff that while yes I can do, it's definitely worth paying somebody else an hourly wage just to take care of it for me. So what exactly does a virtual assistant do? I managed to earn pretty good returns through it. In fact, my investments became a source of solid second income. I decided to go ahead and make use of that income to start a franchise.
